

What Makes A Sun Bear Special?

The sun bear
has small
round

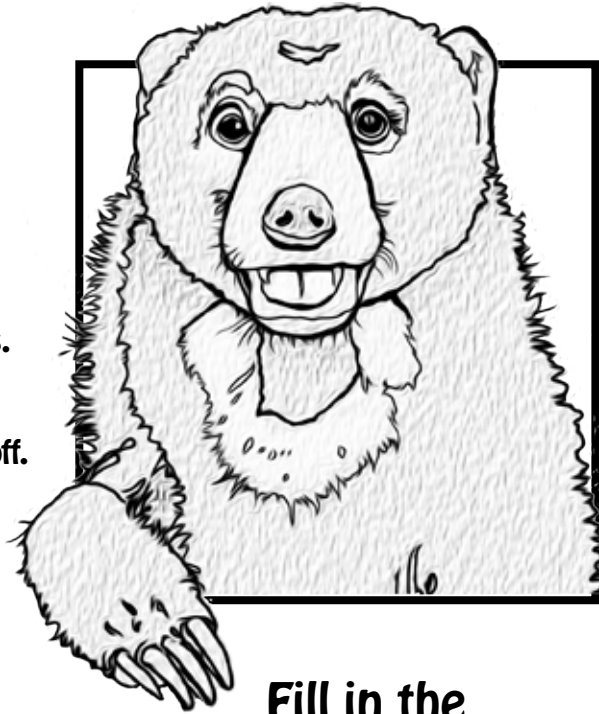

_____.

claws chest paws
tongue coat ears

Sun bears can walk
silently along the forest floor because
the bottom of their

are hairless and very soft like human palms.

With their large sickle shaped _____ sun bears can easily tear apart decaying wood in order to find termites.
They use their paws to collect the termites and then lick them off.

Every sun bear has a unique, lightly colored crescent shaped mark on its _____
that looks like a setting or rising sun.

Fill in the
blanks and learn about sun bear anatomy.

Their sleek, short _____ helps them to avoid overheating in the tropical weather. It's also thick and coarse to provide protection from twigs, branches, and rain.

The sun bear's tail is only 5 cm long but its _____
is the longest of any bear species:
between 20 -25cm long.

