

DRAW THE LINE

At one time life was very peaceful for the sun bear in the rainforests of borneo. In the top box draw how you imagine things were for the sun bear and other species that inhabited this area 100 years ago. Imagine how things changed when logging and palm oil plantations started to take over and then complete the drawing in the bottom box.

